

Is there a book club associated with the library?

Our Friends of the Library group has a book club which meets every month (normally the 3rd Monday at 7 pm at the library). They welcome new readers, please check with the library staff for the current month's selection.