We also have our most famous NH Basket with a half-gallon of NH maple syrup, NH honey, many locally produced food items, NH Lottery Tickets, gift certificates for a Mani-Pedi, and a NH juice-bar, and so much more! We have a new addition to our baskets this year with a Book/Relaxation Basket which includes ten books, three for children and seven for adults, tea, tea cup, a tea pot and gift certificates to Innisfree Books and the Common Man, plus many more great items. And of course – the baskets themselves which are also wonderful! ## NEW HAMPTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY MUSEUM

The historic museum at 30 Dana Hill Road welcomes visitors each Saturday this summer through August 29th from 10:00 AM to 12:00 Noon. The Museum has a great deal of history of New Hampton, the people who lived in Town, the workshops and businesses that kept the Town running and collections of pictures and stories. It is a child friendly museum and they can have a wonderful and imaginary time. During this vacation time, be sure and bring your children and young visitors as they are always really interested in the extensive collection of schools and teaching methods of the past, farming, social and sports memorabilia, as well as the museum's pump organ! A new display features model vintage vehicles!
